

HEAD OF GROUP PROCUREMENT

SWISSPEARL

We build on strong values

Challenges

Since 1894, the Swisspearl Group has stood for high-quality, aesthetic, and sustainable fiber cement products – they shape building envelopes and living spaces worldwide. In this key position central to the company, you will take on responsibility for the global procurement and sourcing strategy. Your task is to sustainably professionalize purchasing activities and processes – you create transparency, identify optimization potential, and realize measurable, long-term added value. With your leadership style, you promote team spirit and performance-oriented collaboration in a matrix organization. Thanks to your analytical strength, proactive thinking, and solution-focused approach, you ensure cost efficiency, supply security, and value creation for the entire corporate group.
